CLIMB MT. ELBRUS
JULY 21 - AUGUST 2, 1991

FINAL BULLETIN

Dear Friends,

With departure day rapidly approaching, we are sending you this bulletin with some last-minute information about your trip, as well as the following enclosures:

TRIP ROSTER
AIRLINE TICKET (if applicable)
BAGGAGE TAGS

TRIP LEADER: Skip Horner will be your guide for this trip. Skip has been a mountain guide for 21 years and has guided on all 7 continents, including the continental summits of 6 continents and up to 26,000' on Everest. Skip will do his best to make your experience on Elbrus a positive and safe one.

VISAS: All of you will soon have your visas in hand. It is quite possible that you will not receive them until a day or so before departure, so please do not panic. Those of you who have made your own travel arrangements and are leaving early should make sure that we have been notified of your plans. Keep your visa with your passport and guard it with your life!

ARRIVAL IN MOSCOW: When you arrive at Sheremetevo Airport in Moscow, you will be directed to the baggage claim area. While waiting for your baggage, please fill out the Customs Declaration Form (both sides). One part asks you to list total funds in your possession and the other section asks about any valuables you may have (rings, watches, etc.). Keep this with your passport documents as you will be asked for it upon your departure. Prior to your departure from the Soviet Union you will be asked to fill out another exact form. Both are surrendered as you pass through Customs upon departure. Be sure to list everything of value; you don't want the Soviets to think that you bought those valuables in the USSR.

After claiming baggage (there are some carts available) you may proceed through Customs. Everything is passed through
